Dear Sir:

As you will have noticed from various offers made you during the last few weeks, I am now working on the provisional edition of the Union List of Serials. So far I have restricted to making such offers as will fill up completely or at least partially broken sets as indicated.

There are a good many Libraries who seem to be rather pleased with the way I am handling the matter, to judge from the quantity of orders placed on my offers or from encouraging letters received. Others accepted a few offers only, and there are also some who did not react at all, like yourself.

You will realize no doubt that it means rather a task to work on material like this and I wonder if I am on the right way to do the work so as to render the best possible service to the Libraries. Therefore I should be much obliged for any suggestions as to how I should work on the Union List to your advantage.

In case you do not care for completing your files I should be obliged to you for letting me know. I will then discontinue making offers to you. This will enable me to concentrate all my time and energy on the gaps of such Libraries who - by placing orders - actually show that they are interested in completing their files.

Of course, I do not expect to receive orders for everything offered, but should like to get encouraging answers to suitable offers made, if orders are not placed for one reason or other.

Thanking you, I am, dear Sir,

very truly yours,

Otto Harrassowitz

Dear Sir:

Replying to your communication of November 27th, because there are comparatively few sets in our library which are not already complete, I think that there would be very little use in carrying into effect the plan outlined in your letter.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

I have got your letter of December 10 and am glad to report that only very few wanted me to discontinue my offering and my reporting after the Union List of Serials. It would make more work therefore to leave these few out from my machinery and I shall consequently continue my offering also to you. You may probably like to use these offers for your own records.

I should like to seize the opportunity to also offer you my services for any book-order you may have in future, assuring you to supply any European books as quickly as possible and at moderate terms. Please try my firm by forwarding your desiderata.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sirs:

Re Union List of Serials.

I made you offer for certain parts of the serial listed below, but seem to have received no reply nor order. I know the present edition of the list is not always corresponding with sets Libraries have, and my offer may not have suited you for one reason or other. I shall perhaps be in a position to make you a better offer as soon as I learn of exactly the volumes you want.

Date of offer
April. 21, 1926. Frankfurter Münzzeitung.

Very truly yours,

Herr Otto Harrassowitz,

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly inform me if you are able to quote on Roscher's Ausführliches Lexikon der Griechischen und Römischen Mythologie, Band 8, complete. I do not desire more than this Fourth Band, which is needed to complete our set.

Yours very truly,

Librarian and Secretary

Dear Sir:

Roscher's Lexikon d. griech. u. röm. Mythologie, for which you inquired on Jan. 13, is not given away separately. I am sorry therefore not to be able to offer you vol. IV alone just now. I have, however, made arrangements with the publisher that if you take the continuation he will probably be exceptionally willing to also supply you the fourth volume. The cost of this would be about $\text{¥} 11.50$.

You say that you had lost this vol. IV and want to complete your set. It would also be advisable then to just inform me from which source you did receive "Roscher" in continuation. I am sure these informations will help me largely to procure this vol. IV and also to supply you future parts. Please then let me also know which is the last part you have.

Very truly yours,

February 24, 1927

Mr. Otto Harrassowitz,
Leipzig 61, Germany

Dear Sir:

Responding to yours of February 9th, I beg to advise that we are already subscribers to the continuation of Roscher's Lexicon through a French dealer from whom the first portion of the set was ordered. I presumed, as you write, that he can secure the lacking volume IV. I have merely written in the effort to place some business in your hands. If under the circumstances, you can induce the publisher to furnish you volume IV at the price you mention, you can send it to me with your bill, otherwise I can take up the matter with the French book seller.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your order Ma. 28 concerning books from my catalogue 407. Much to my regret only about one third of the material was still available, but I shall try to find all the sold items again, and if possible at same figures. If not, I shall make you new offers whenever the occasion arises.

Very truly yours,

O. Harrassowitz

Dear Sir:

I am very pleased to learn by your letter Feb. 24 of your intention to place more business in my hands, and the more I am sorry not to be able to help you in the Roscher affair re the fourth volume, unless you place a continuation order with my firm and also state your French agent who supplied previous parts. This is requested by the publisher, and there is no possibility otherwise to get this vol. IV. If you do not remember the name of the French dealer I might just as well try upon the publisher, but then it would be essential to place a continuation order.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

In asking our bank to make payment on your bill of January 23, 1929, we have taken the liberty of deducting therefrom the amount of our bill of December 28, 1927, a statement of which was sent you in December 1928. The deduction of the 43 cents owed us for the copy of Newell's Unpublished Coins of Eastern Dynasts from your bill of $4.76, leaves $4.33, which sum we have requested the bank to send you.

Yours truly,

Secretary
